

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Board of Health meets today.
Dr. Walters and wife returned to Kauai yesterday.

Work has commenced on the library extension.

The Myrtles will begin training for the regatta next week.

The Senate is to be photographed on invitation of Frank Godfrey.

John Ena and family are rusticated at Kapapala ranch, Hawaii.

Mrs. Theo. Hoffman is expected from the Coast by the Alameda tomorrow.

The Leilanis are hard at work. New oar locks have been put on their shell.

Paul Isenberg and wife will go to Kauai next week for a two months visit.

From May 27th twenty-two cases have been appealed from the District court.

Detective Van Giesen has returned from a lengthy official visit to Hawaii.

Charlie Good, well known here as an artist of merit, will shortly return to Honolulu.

According to reports from Kau, smoke has been seen issuing from Mauna Loa recently.

Rev. A. B. Soares will leave by the W. G. Hall Friday for four weeks vacation on Kona.

W. A. Wall and W. Y. Horner were among the incoming passengers by yesterday's Hall.

Ladies day at the Pacific Tennis Club courts. Lady friends of the club are cordially invited.

E. M. Walsh, wife and two children, and Mrs. E. C. Damon left by the Likeli yesterday.

J. J. Sullivan is able to attend to business again after a seizure of inflammatory rheumatism.

Sweeping reductions in millinery, ladies and childrens trimmed hats at Sachs' special millinery sale this week.

Auction sale of furniture at the store of C. E. Williams & Son, King street, 10 o'clock this morning by Morgan.

W. P. Boyd left by the Likeli yesterday. He will join Mrs. Boyd at Waikapu and proceed to Hawaii for a month's visit.

Ten shares of Woodlawn Fruit Company stock, $50 per share paid up, will be sold at Morgan's auction rooms tomorrow noon.

President Wilder of the Senate, and several members of that body, were present during part of yesterday's session of the House.

The W. G. Hall brought only a few passengers from Maui and Hawaii yesterday, but she made up in the number of deck passengers.

A general tennis tournament for the middle of August is now being talked of. All tennis enthusiasts seem to strongly favor this plan.

Hans, the enterprising boot-black at the Pantheon, has had an electric light placed over his stand to accommodate the evening trade.

British Commissioner Hawes moved into his new residence at Palama yesterday. He has leased the property belonging to Mrs. Dominis.

Annual meeting of stockholders Waiohinu Agricultural and Grazing Company at office of Wm. G. Irwin & Co., Ltd., 10 o'clock this morning.

Afternoon tennis at the home of J. H. Gilman on the premises of J. F. Brown, Waikiki, was enjoyed by a number of friends yesterday afternoon.

Monthly business meeting of Y. M. C. A. will be held in their hall Thursday, August 1st, 7:30 p. m. Important business will come up for transaction.

The temporary galvanized iron building over the new pumping plant was torn down yesterday. The roof over the new building is about half completed.

Secretary Corbett, of the Y. M. C. A., is expected to return on August 24th. The gymnasium apparatus, now here, will not be erected until his return.

Two companies of bluejackets from the Bennington were landed for drill yesterday evening. The vicinity of Brewer's wharf was used as parade ground.

Hollister Drug Company have just received direct from the factories an extra choice selection of brushes of all kinds, which are offered at bottom prices.

The college boys, now on a hunting expedition to Kauai, have again been heard from. Some seventy-two wild cattle were shot in the valley back of Makaweli. The boys will probably return to Honolulu by the Mikahala on Sunday.

D. Kapali, the native who stood and watched officer B. Kupieha while he was arresting Joe for assault on Patrolman Molenhauer, was fined $10 and cost in the police court yesterday morning.

Company 7, Citizens Guard, will meet at Reform School, Palama, Friday evening, August 2d, 7 o'clock. All members holding Government rifles and commissions are requested to bring them for inspection.

The marriage of Irene Buchanan to C. A. Long took place in the Catholic cathedral early last evening, Father Leonore performing the ceremony. The ceremony was strictly private, none but relatives being present.

A new linting machine is being set up at A. F. Cooke's fertilizing works, Iwilei. It is the intention to get persons in the vicinity to plant cotton. The work of separating the seeds will be done on the spot, the seeds being used as a fertilizer.

Some forty lots at Kaakaako, on the road leading to Waikiki, have recently been leased to natives and Portuguese. Building will commence soon on several of the lots. In the vicinity of the kerosene house some fourteen houses have recently been erected.

Jas. N. K. Keola tried his best to find something for the House to do yesterday by ransacking the mass of papers on his desk. His efforts were very much appreciated by members of the House, especially when he succeeded in bringing forth the currency bill.

Company C are much disturbed over a recent order changing their weekly drill night from Friday to Saturday. Some of the members are talking of resigning if the obnoxious order is continued. A petition will be sent to the commander-in-chief concerning the matter.

Work was begun yesterday on the proposed extension of the library building and will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. Instead of being given out by contract, the job will be done by day work under the supervision of Architect Ripley who has secured the services of F. Wilhelm as foreman.

The young native boy who conducts a bootblack stand near the Criterion saloon severely lacerated one of his hands yesterday in trying to stop a bicycle wheel. He was cleaning the machine and set the wheel going at a rapid rate, thrusting his hand between the wire spokes to stop it with the above result.

The retaining wall back of the Pacific Mail wharf and running from a position near the new fish market to the rear of the marine railway, is all but complete. The cement is all that remains to be applied. There is a scarcity of that article in the market at the present time, and it is very probable a long wait will have to be made.

The best way to do newspaper advertising is to try it for a time. "One brick won't build you a house." One advertisement, one time, would hardly pay anyone. What the largest advertisers are doing is running their advertisements right along from year to year.
